

Boone County Family Resources

Families in need of support may click the name of the resource or organization hyperlinked below to be connected for more information.

Western Boone Food Pantry

Western Boone Jr.-Sr. High School offers a drive thru food pantry on the 3rd Thursday of each month. The food pantry is open to anyone in need. Start time is 3:15 in the west end parking lot. Drivers should remain in their cars and may not enter the drive until all buses have left the lot.

Love, Inc. of Boone County

Love In the Name of Christ of Boone County is a unique network of churches and agencies responding to needs of people seeking hope during difficult times. The GAP ministry fills unmet needs not covered by agencies or other organizations. See website for locations for the following services.

Adult clothing

Kids' clothing

Baby cribs & supplies

Personal care items

Food and frozen meat pantry

Housecleaning supplies

Gas cards

The Caring Center

The Caring Center supports families and individuals facing situational or generational poverty and food insecurity. Services include food, clothing, personal care items, furniture, educational classes, transitional housing, and more. They serve all individuals without discrimination.

Boone County Resource Guide

The Boone County Resource Guide connects families with local resources supporting a wide range of needs.

United Way of Central Indiana – 2-1-1

In times of crisis, Indiana 2-1-1 is committed to being your most essential resource. Trained counselors are ready to take your confidential call right now -- 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. How can 2-1-1 help you?

Finding a food pantry

Housing, rent/mortgage, and utilities assistance

Employment and education opportunities

Healthcare, vaccinations, and mental health

Domestic abuse support

Addiction and rehabilitation referrals

Sheltering Wings – Danville, Indiana

Sheltering Wings provides emergency housing and services for survivors escaping domestic abuse, helping build stable and independent lives in a Christ-centered environment.